? WERE YOU EVER ASKED?

A TOTAL of 48,300 immigrants were allowed into Britain in the 12 months to the end of September last year, recent Home Office figures revealed.

Otherfigures released showed that in 1985 one-in-five people living in London is Black or Asian, one-in-ten people living in the Metropolitan counties is Black or Asian and that coloured immigrants made up 5% of the the population.

The FLAG* inquires,

★Were you ever asked whether you wanted to share your country with Africans, West Indians, Pakistanis and Indians?

★Did any political party campaign on the issue 'Vote for us and we'll introduce coloured immigration?''.

★Was there ever a referendum on whether the British people wanted to share their country?

No!

The simple answer is NO! Coloured immigration was hoisted on Britain without consulting the British people to provide cheap labour, undermine the power of Britain's Trade Unions and to give bigger profits to big business.

IN DEFENCE OF BRITAIN!

AT SHEFFIELD

THREE THOUSAND IRA supporters shuffled through Sheffield on Saturday 31st January scarring the city like a festering sore.

The most obscene chants imaginable came from this rag-bag collection of Labour Party members, Communists, homosexuals, lesbians, Blacks, Asians and no-nonsense IRA terrorists as they gloried in, cheered and gloated over the massacre of British soldiers, policemen and civilians in Ulster.

Make no mistake this was an IRA march! They chanted 'IRA', they applauded IRA acts and they carried placards supporting the IRA. Yes, on Britain's streets they carried placards saying "For the IRA against the British Army".

Was it any wonder that as many as fifteen NF ex-servicemen, mainly from Birmingham Branch, were arrested as they stormed the march?

Was it any wonder that hundreds of Sheffield shoppers joined the ranks of the National Front showing their disgust at this brazen fifth column in our country?

Was it any wonder that for the duration of the march the IRA chants from the marchers were continually drowned out by the thunderous chorus of 'IRA SCUM OFF OUR STREETS!'

FRONT MEMBERS STOP THE MARCH!* hardly had the IRA left their assembly point when they were stopped in their tracks as NF members blocked the road. It was only after fifteen arrests that the way was cleared.

If it hadn't been for the National Front the IRA and their supporters would have marched through Sheffield unopposed. Once again it has been left to the National Front to organise against and expose these traitors in our midst.

Once again it is the National Front alone that is prepared to defend Britain and the British people against the enemies of our country.

PROOF!* A placard confiscated from one of the marchers by members of Leeds NF.
There can be no doubt about the sentiments expressed.

AT GREENWICH

ON THURSDAY 26th February, 26 year-old Joe Pearce will be standing up for the British people,giving them a chance, as voters go to the polls in the Greenwich by-election, to support the only political party whose patriotic policies can secure a British future for our country.

Joe is fighting the seat for the National Front and he launched his campaign on Sunday February 1st in the Trafalgar Ward of the constituency distributing to the voters a leaflet introducing himself and another exposing the Labour Party's desertion of the British worker in favour of the homosexual and ethnic minorities.

There is only one candidate the voters of Greenwich should support on Feb 26th . . . .

NF SUPPORT PETER ROBINSON

MEMBERS OF the National Front demonstrated outside the Irish Embassy in London on the opening day of Peter Robinson's trial on January 13th.

They were joined by fellow Loyalists who had travelled down from Liverpool to protest against Peter Robinson's treatment at the hands of the Irish authorities.

Ulster flags and Union Jacks fluttered, amidst the flakes of snow, and placards held aloft spelt out the purpose of the picket: EIRE — HANDS OFF ULSTER, PETER ROBINSON IS INNOCENT, and ULSTER IS BRITISH!

The demonstration was peaceful, although the demonstrators were provoked into anger when the police arrested one Loyalist for burning the Irish tricolour.

All in all the NF demonstration ensured that the Irish Ambassador and his staff knew exactly what British people felt about the victimisation of Loyal Britons like Peter Robinson by the Irish Government.

Finally, those who braved the Siberian conditions to picket the Embassy were rewarded by the knowledge that their efforts received national television coverage.

THE FARCE OF IRISH JUSTICE

IRISH JUSTICE has been shown the farce that Loyalists have long suspected it to be. On Friday 16th January a supposedly "impartial and fair-minded" judge sumed up in the case of Peter Robinson MP who was charged with unlawful assembly in the Republic. He described Mr Robinson, who unlike the judge had been democratically elected to his position of authority, as an 'extremist' whose utterances had been published *'ad nauseam'. Are those really the words of an impartial judge?

Having finished his harangue the Judge then imposed a fine of 15,000 Irish pounds which due to the stagnant state of the Eire economy is only worth 13,740 British pounds. He then compounded his malice by giving Mr Robinson just 7 days to pay, in the hope, presumably, that he would fail and then be imprisoned for non-payment of fines.

Mr. Robinson's crime was that along with a band of other Loyalists, he had shown that border security would be a joke except for the fact that it didn't exist at all. The 200 Loyalists had driven well into the Republic without once being challenged, showing how easy it must be for small groups of IRA murderers to travel into Ulster.

JUDGING

What is even more disturbing is that under Thatcher's Anglo Irish Agreement so-called judges like Justice Barr will sit on Northern Ireland courts judging other Loyalists! What exactly, we may ask, will happen should an IRA murderer come before him — a commendation perhaps?

THATCHER HIDES FROM THE WRATH OF ULSTER

THE ANGLO-Irish Agreement is now just over one year-old. When introduced Margaret Thatcher claimed it would improve security.

At the end of December she was to secretly visit police stations and army barracks in Ulster. Ian Paisley M.P. found out about the visit and called for demonstrations against the Agreement. Immediately Thatcher's lap-dog, Northern Ireland Secretary Tom King condemned Mr Paisley for "putting the Prime Minister in danger".

Now if the Anglo-Irish Agreement is so wonderful, why is her life still in danger when she is only visiting police stations and army barracks. Now spare a thought for active Loyalists who live in Northern Ireland 365 days a year. Potential IRA targets such as leading Loyalist politicians or the leaders of the various other loyalist groups are not afraid to walk the streets despite the continually growing danger.

Is it any wonder that Loyalists are angry. They have been sold out and their lives put in danger by a British Prime Minister who hasn't the guts to show her face on the streets of part of Britain and limits her visits to the sheltered accomodation of police stations and army barracks.

MP UPSET BY THE FRONT!

THE RICHMOND Branch of the National Front has started 1987 with a leaflet campaign throughout the Richmond and Barnes constituency and in the first weeks they have managed to upset sitting MP Jeremy Hanley.

Mr Hanley is one of the specialists for the Government on their Race Relations policy and he wasted no time in attacking the local NF branch. "They will face prosecution under the new Public Order Act if their literature tends to stir up racial hatred.".

The MP admitted though that there was more likely to be blood on Britain's street through bad race relations than by a nuclear war.

No doubt agreeing with Hanley's last sentiments, the Richmond NF Branch issued a press statement "the spiralling of racial tensions into racial conflict and finally race war could only be averted by the National Front's policy of humane, financially assisted repatriation".

SELLAFIELD IS UNSAFE —AND THAT'S OFFICIAL

by Joe Pearce

PARTS OF the Sellafield nuclear plant are ageing and unsafe. That was the finding of a report by the Nuclear Installations Inspectorate, an official body funded by the Government.

The Inspectorate's report has set British Nuclear Fuels Ltd a 12 month deadline to carry out major improvements to ageing parts of the reprocessing plant; improve inadequate safety procedures and make changes in management structure.

Management at the plant were obviously taken aback by the hard-hitting and critical nature of the report, and a Sellafield spokesman estimated that improvements would cost over £30 million.

This latest report by an independent Inspectorate is yet another setback for those who claim that nuclear power is both cheap and safe. As the report showed quite clearly, the Sellafield plant is not as safe as the nuclear lobby would have us believe. Furthermore, the high cost of implementing the improvements required by the report illustrate that nuclear power is not as cheap as some of us would like to believe either.

*On Wednesday 21st January twelve workers at Sellafield were contaminated after a leak of radiation. At the time of going to press they were still being kept in isolation.

TALKING WITH TERRORISTS

US SECRETARY of State, George Shultz has met with ANC Terrorist leader Oliver Tambo.

Amongst its numerous and horrific crimes the ANC regularly 'necklaces' its political opponents — a practice of putting a tyre filled with petrol around the unfortunate victims neck and setting fire to it.

LIVING ON BORROWED TIME

THE AVERAGE British family is in debt to the tune of almost 80% of its after-tax income, according to recently-published figures. Furthermore, since the whole country went on a credit-crazed spree over Christmas the average debt-burden is probably even worse than these figures illustrate.

The figures also show that consumer debt as a percentage of income has risen from 44.5% in 1980 to 79.9% just before Christmas.

SINKING LOCAL ROOTS IN KENT

by Martin Wingfield

WHEN KENT'S first Asian County Councillor, Dai Lyanage launched a virulent attack on Kent Police, he was exposed as a fraud by Kent NF Regional Organiser Sid Campbell.

You see Councillor Lyanage delivered his bitter attack in the columns of the Chatham, Rochester and Gillingham News, criticising the Police for failing to answer complaints raised at a Police Liaison Committee Meeting.

Sid Campbell was backed in his description of the councillor by Superintendent Lew Hart and two Tory Councillors.

Attending local meetings where he can, is the way Sid Campbell promotes the NF in Kent. Asking questions and putting over the National Front viewpoint at these meetings gets the NF spokesman known, our policies understood and creates interest in the party.

"In the old days NF members went to meetings to cause chaos. Such actions won us no friends just ridicule. Now we go along and argue our corner, getting our policies known and winning friends*",* Sid told The FLAG,

"Last month I attended the TVS programme Questions with David Jacobs where I had an argument with the programme's two producers and the director over the way the panel was selected. A majority of the audience agreed with my arguments and they received coverage in the local papers.

Sid Campbell is a credit to the Party, not only because he is an articulate ambassador for the National Front, but also because he is building the NF in Kent by means of sinking local roots, getting the Party known in the community.

The hard work Sid Campbell has put into the Kent Region in the last 12 months makes him look the certain first choice to be adopted as NF candidate for Gillingham when selection takes place later this month.

But Sid Campbell, who was also at that meeting, revealed in a letter to the same paper that Councillor Lyanage, far from raising his complaints at the meeting, arrived late, said nothing, and left early. No doubt preferring to voice his criticisms in the columns of a local paper rather than face to face with the Police. Sid Campbell labelled the Liberal Councillor a 'publicity seeker, making issues out of nothing just to get his name in the paper'.

WHEN BEDS ARE STILL WARM!

THOUSANDS OF operations were cancelled last year as more and more hospitals were forced to close their doors to routine surgery because a shortage of beds.

A nationwide survey, published in January, revealed that the rapid reduction in the number of beds — by 20,000 in the past six years — is leading to a crisis in patient care.

Patients in Treliske, Cornwall, were climbing into beds still warm from the previous occupants, while one hospital in London was forced to close its doors to all but emergencies for more than 15 weeks.

The survey revealed that waiting lists for operations in London had increased by 7% in the last year. It also revealed serious problems in Surrey, Cornwall, Sussex and Birmingham.

WAITING LIST

At one hospital alone, Hillingdon in west London, the waiting list for surgery increased by 10% because it had to close for all but emergency and urgent cases over 65 days. The nearby West Middlesex University Hospital, Isleworth, had to close its doors for 106 days.

Hospital administrators fear that patients are being endangered by being discharged too quickly to make way for new admissions. Mr. John Saxby, general manager of the Royal Cornwall Hospital, Treliske, said that his staff were "under constant pressure to discharge patients early".

"We are probably on the borderlines of safety in some cases," he said, "It puts a terrible strain on the medical and nursing staff who are working with the acutely ill all the time."

Mr. Peter Emery, assistant general manager of East Birmingham Hospital, which was closed to all but emergencies for 10 weeks last year, said, "We are discharging people before they are really fit. No hospital under pressure can honestly say they are doing otherwise".

SICK AND FEEBLE

These words of despair from hospital administrators spell out the chronic ill-health into which the NHS has slipped in recent years. Instead of being something which other countries used to envy, the Health Service has become as sick and feeble as the patients it treats.

The blame for this decline in the National Health Service rests squarely on the shoulders of the Government. After all, it is they who prefer to spend millions on 'community relations', overseas aid and debt repayments to international finance rather than spending British money on British people.

The National Health Service will only get the financial support it needs when there is a National Front Government, a government prepared to put the interests of the British people first.

20,000 BLACK marchers chanted through the sleepy Georgia town of Cumming on January 24th demanding that blacks be allowed to set up residence.

Many of the towns elderly and young children had been frightened by the noisy and threatening nature of the marchers.

U.S. ARMS SALES: THE JOKE IS ON US!

■ Trident

by Ian Anderson

BRITAIN has over the last 30 years, become increasingly dependent on American arms — we cancelled Blue Streak in 1962 to buy the American Skybolt missile — this was later scrapped by the Americans. We scrapped the famous TSR-2 to buy American, we have agreed to buy Trident nuclear missiles and now we are to buy American AWACs.

So just how good is modern American technology?

American troops were to be given a new gun to defend themselves against aircraft. This 'Divad' gun took eight years to develop and cost £1.8billion. It was going to work in all weathers and to be backed up by computer technology. Unfortunately it had some annoying habits. When tested in cold conditions, it registered readings 180 degrees off target, which as one official stated is "hardly reassuring to your reserve units".

Designed to hit fast flying aircraft, it was not even able to hit a stationary ground target 100 yards away. In August 1985 it was cancelled.

FENCE POSTS

The USAF is equipped with 20,000 of the aptly named 'Maverick' missiles which are designed to knock out tanks. These cost $500million. In one set of tests using a camouflaged tank it was able to 'lock on' to its target in only 5% of cases. In a wider test using one stationary tank, no other competing target, no evading action, no decoys etc., in other words under absolutely ideal circumstances it 'locked on' in less than 60% of tests. In routine tests it did a grand job, regularly 'attacking' telegraph poles, fence posts and large boulders.

★Guns that fire the wrong way!

★Missiles that attack fence posts!

★Troop Carriers with no room for the troops!

NO ROOM

The Bradley Fighting Vehicle is an armoured personnel carrier — ten feet tall, 22 tons and made of aluminium —which burns spectacularly. Crammed with gadgetry the designers forgot one small detail — there is virtually no room for the infantry it was designed to carry.

It is also extremely heavy. In an early attempt to demonstrate its amphibious ability the Bradley surrounded by a rubber collar ploughed into the Ohio river at Fort Knox, in front of the assembled officialdom —where it sank like a stone!

With Mrs Thatcher's decision to scrap Nimrod, putting thousands of British workers on the dole, and to buy America's AWACs, we must all be comforted by the thought that American technology is going to give us an early warning of an attack and more American technology is then going to launch American Trident Nuclear Missiles against any aggressor. Keeping up with previous performances, with any luck that will be the end of the Pentagon.

And just in case you still believe the Americans are cost effective and efficient you may be interested to hear that American early warning aircraft are equipped with plastic ashtrays for the staff to stub out whatever they may be smoking — *the ashtrays cost nearly £500 each.

Perhaps they will give Mrs Thatcher one as a thank you present.

SACRIFICED TO THE MAD GOD OF MULTI-RACIALISM

THE RACIAL background of applicants for the armed forces are being monitored for the first time this year.

Roger Freeman, Under Secretary of State for the Armed Forces, announced that from April recruits will have to state whether they are white, black or Asian in origin. The scheme has the backing of the anti-Brititsh Commission for Racial Equality which is anxious to see more blacks and Asians in the armed forces.

These latest Government plans to force multi-racialism on the British people, are bad news for young whites wishing to join the Army, Navy or Air Force. From now on the race monitoring scheme is likely to lead to 'positive discrimination' in favour of blacks and Asians. This, in turn, will mean that white candidates will be turned away in favour of coloured applicants even if the white candidate is better qualified. In short, as blacks and Asians are put first in the queue for careers in the services, British youth will find itself tossed on the scrap-heap.

Even more worrying is the effect that increased coloured recruitment is likely to have on the efficiency of the armed forces. If the experience in America is anything to go by, this should be a major cause of concern since coloured recruits in the U.S. Army are notorious for their drug-taking and lack of discipline.

LETTER OF THE MONTH

THE CAMPAIGN by the South West Region of the National Front to organise the celebrations of the 300 year anniversary of the landing of King William of Orange at Brixham in 1688 has caused quite a panic in the West Country.

Letters and articles are flowing to and fro in the local papers and the limelight is certainly on the local NF. Published below is an excellent letter by South West Regional Organiser Mark Cotterill published in the Western Morning News on 15th January.

National Front stand beside Orangemen

May I reply to the letter from E. Jenkin of Exeter, headed William celebrations will provoke violent reactions.

Firstly may I say how pleased I am that most city and county councillors in Devon are going to support the 300th anniversary celebrations of the landing of King William of Orange at Brixham and his journey through Exeter, in 1988. I cannot see what the dangers of celebrating these events are, as E. Jenkin does.

King Billy has become the symbol of the Loyalist people of Ulster, and so he should. He and his army were the ones who won them their freedom in 1690.

If celebrating his anniversary is seen by Irish Republicans as the English identifying with the Loyalist people of Ulster, so what, if the Republicans don't like it, hard luck.

By being seen to support Loyalism in Ulster, will not be contributing further to the civil war there, but will be seen as a sign of friendship between the British people of Devon and the British people of Ulster.

E. Jenkin goes on to say that the celebrations will be extremely provocative, but provocative to who? The IRA, Sinn Fein or their Communist supporters here on the mainland?

The National Front is the only true friend of the Ulster Loyalists here on the mainland and we plan to put across their message to the people of England and try and get their support.

We have a lot of plans in the pipeline for 1988, when we hope to bring our supporters from all over the country to Devon.

What we will not be doing is hi-jacking the event, as claimed, but we will be supporting it and also bring the message of the people of Ulster, to the people of Devon. That message is the same one it has always been. "In two world wars the loyalist people of Ulster, stood by Britain, now in our hour of need we need the British people to stand by Ulster"

THE GROWTH of Brierley Hill and Dudley National Front has hit the headlines in the West Midland's newspapers, and led to the predictable outcry from the all-powerful Race Relations Lobby.

CONFEDERACY

WITHOUT A single vote against, National Front branches from every corner of Britain approved a new set up for the running of the National Front.

From now on it is the branches of the National Front who will have their hands firmly on the reins of power to guide the Party in the years ahead.

Joe Pearce (Right), explains the 'Confederacy of Branches' to the organisers present.

ACTIVITIES

ACTIVITIES have always been the hallmark of a thriving National Front, and former Chairman of the Party Ian Anderson (left) outlines to the audience an ambitious list of activities for the coming year.

That list was headed by the very successful counter-demonstration against the IRA in Sheffield and our campaign in the Greenwich by-election.

GROWTH & PUBLICITY

GROWTH for branches comes from gaining good publicity for the Party in that local area. Bob Nash of Haringey NF detailed some of the ways to get that publicity, and introduced West Midlands Regional Organiser, John Hill,(right) to the meeting. The West Midlands has seen incredible growth for the National Front during 1986.

NEW RANGE OF LEAFLETS

TOM ACTON (left) introduced an impressive display of new leaflets, posters and stickers to assist branches in recruitment for 1987.

Tom is one of the unsung heroes of the National Front. His commitment to the party is total, both in terms of work and financial contribution.

The Ideal Man for the Occasion

LEADING FROM the front is something that is second nature to Joe Pearce.

Since his teens he has been in the forefront of National Front politics, firstly as Organiser with the Young National Front and now in later years as a leading figure in the National Front.

He is a young man that commands respect from everybody who has had anything thing do do with Nationalist politics over the last ten years.

Jailed twice by the Race Board Gestapo for his beliefs, each time Joe has come out stronger than before, eager to resume the battle to win back our country.

The author of two books on Nationalist ideology, Joe combines the two essential qualities needed to stand up against the might of our opponents — a total commitment to what he believes and the complete understanding of what he is committed to.

Joe Pearce is the ideal man to stand as NF candidate in the Greenwich by-election — polling day 26th February. No one has better credentials to represent the National Front.

THE TED BUDDEN COLUMN

Botchers Galore

IT IS A PUBLIC scandal that the building trade is infested these days with 'cowboys', hopeless botchers who prey upon gullible people, especially the elderly.

They trick their way into the homes of old people by pretending to be meter readers, or social workers; even, I'm told, Members of Parliament, although that is possibly too close to criminality to be really plausible.

Once inside, they try to sell the poor old person a fraudulent bill of goods; pretending to be able to do work for which they are totally unfitted and unskilled. It is only after they have done their job that the victims find that they've been cruelly and cynically cheated.

Oh yes, they're plausible rogues and brazen too.

Why, during the recent cold spell, one such 'cowboy' firm, Kinnock and Meacher (Special Rates for Old Age Pensioners), was actually filmed for TV after they had conned their way into the council flat of Mrs Ada Noggs, 73, a widow of 24 Mandela Mansions, Lambeth.

There was Kinnock, the spieler of the partnership, ingratiating himself with the old lady as though he was a long lost son, all dutiful and compassionate. He was telling her how much better his firm could do the job than the accredited contractors Thatcher and Fowler, another notorious 'cowboy' firm, who, he alleged, were killing thousands through hypothermia. He was claiming that he and Meacher would make sure that she was warm and cosy for the rest of her life at absolutely no cost whatsoever. He was a sly, shifty individual, certainly not the sort that any sensible person would allow in the attic.

Meanwhile, Meacher was shown attempting, in a fumbling fashion, to fix a strip of insulating tape to the front door, work to which he was obviously unaccustomed.

Sadly, Mrs Noggs seemed to have been completely taken in by these rogues. "They were really very nice", she said, "especially that kind Mr Kinnock. Mr Meacher too. He didn't make any fuss when he accidentally nailed his tie to my front door. The red tie does clash a bit with the blue door but it keeps the draught out beautifully".

Clearly, the elderly must be protected against exploitation by these cynical opportunists. Parliament must act!

MONGREL CHUM

MANY YEARS ago, there lived a creature called Orpington Man — one Eric Lubbock who created a sensation at that time by contesting a by-election for the Liberals at Orpington and winning it by overturning a large Tory majority. This was said to have made the Liberals look like a party of real power. I can't think why except, perhaps the aforesaid Lubbock was such a feeble, unprepossessing weed that he made his fellow Liberals look vigorous by comparison.

I had the misfortune to encounter the foul Lubbock in 1968 when, with three friends, I was hauled into court by the Race Relations Board on a false and malicious charge of 'inciting racial hatred'. Lubbock appeared as a witness for the prosecution and did our case no end of good when, after being read a lengthy passage of one of Enoch Powell's speeches, he declared that he thought it was written by me.

When I gazed upon this Lubbock person in the witness box I was struck by his repellent aspect — the lank hair, the sallow face, the very dark, damp brown eyes.

"By God, I thought, it looks like a dying cow. Definitely unfit for human consumption. Grade C dog meat!"

So I suppose that recent events are really a tribute to my incredible perception for it came as no surprise to me to learn that this wretch, since transmogrified into Lord Avebury, has willed his body to Battersea Dogs Home.

I suppose that dogs, being what they are, will devour almost any kind of carrion, but I am a humane man and I strongly object to the poor dumb creatures being force-fed with Liberal loon. There's no telling what frightful disease they might catch — Liberalism, for instance.

One good turn deserves another and since the vile Lubbock conspired all those years ago with the Race Relations Board to have me thrown in the pokey, I will repay the compliment by reporting him to the RSPCA.

DISCHARGE FOR 'FLAG' SELLERS

by our Court Correspondent

ON SATURDAY 1st November Neil Bagnall and Martin French of Lambeth National Front, together with Mary Ashton and Malcolm Ward of Wandsworth National Front and The FLAG's editor Martin Wingfield were arrested outside Chelsea Football Ground where they had been selling papers.

Two uniformed dog handlers had told the papersellers to move on because they were obstructing the pavement. When they denied they were causing any obstruction they were arrested.

On December 30th the five defendants were given a conditional discharge at West London Magistrates Court after being found guilty of the charge.

The magistrate accepted the testimony of the two officers that obstruction of the pavement had taken place despite photographic evidence to the contrary. Pc Richardson had claimed, under oath, that up to six people had to walk in the road to pass the papersellers while the five defendants said such people didn't exist.

Cross-examining the officers for the defendants, Martin Wingfield told Pc Richardson "When we all leave this court room you will be sharing something with the five defendants. The knowledge that you have deliberately lied under oath".

The fact that the defendants were discharged reflected the doubts the magistrate must have had.

■ No one in sight as the Police warn the sellers

FREE TO SELL

After the case discussions took place between the NF and Fulham Police with regard to the harassment of National Front papersellers at Chelsea and in particular the role of Pc Richardson in this harassment .

Chief Inspector Rosser, in charge of operations at Stamford Bridge, said the NF were free to sell their papers outside the ground and his officers would be instructed to that effect. He could not answer as to why it was always Pc Richardson, and no other officer, who came up against the NF papersellers.

Normal paperselling resumes for the first time since the arrests at Chelsea on February 14th.

■ Still no one in sight as the 'FLAG' sellers are arrested.

PARKING FINES: A DIPLOMATIC SCANDAL

by Joe Pearce

WHATEVER MAY happen in the Gulf War, there is one battlefield on which Iraq is beating Iran hands down. In the third quarter of last year, Iraqi diplomats in London managed to accumulate 166 unpaid parking fines. Their Iranian counterparts could only muster 54.

IMMUNITY

Because of diplomatic immunity, there is nothing Scotland Yard can do to enforce payment of these fines, except hope to shame the miscreants by public exposure. Hence the publication of these quarterly figures.

Top of the league was Saudi Arabia, with 478 unpaid fines; an impressive increase on its 336 fines in the second quarter. Qatar lies second in the league with 329 unpaid fines, compared with 166 in the previous quarter. In third place and disproving the popular belief that only Arab diplomats go in for this racket — is France.

France is followed in order by Egypt, Turkey, China, Iraq, the Soviet Union, Cameroon and Oman. In fact of the 123 diplomatic missions in London, only nine had no unpaid fines.

NO REASON

While Scotland Yard is prevented by diplomatic immunity, from taking action against these law-breakers, there is no reason why the Government should be turning a blind eye. The Tories claim to be the party of 'law and order' yet they do nothing to halt this outrageous breach of British law by foreign diplomats ...

PRIVATISATION MEANS FOREIGN OWNERSHIP

by Joe Pearce

WALL STREET snapped up British gas shares after many British investors sold off their shares only weeks after purchasing them.

British shareholders moved in relatively large numbers to sell their shares — turnover in gas shares reaching 297 million in just one day — but overseas buying easily outweighed domestic selling.

New York investment bank Goldman Sachs reported that British Gas deals jumped to around 1.8 million per day as US institutions snapped up shares coming on to the market through London.

Meanwhile Tokyo-based securities Nomura reported continued brisk Japanese demand for Gas shares.

This then is the stark reality behind the Conservative Government's privatisation plans — the selling up of British national assets to the forces of international finance.

FOREIGN AIRWAYS

The Tories' wholesale selling of British assets to foreign business is set to continue with the sale of British Airways.

In fact, the minimum application level for BA shares has been set at a higher level than either British Telecom or British Gas shares. This has been done to deter too many small British investors from buying shares and to encourage buying by foreign investors.

Even though a maximum of 20% of BA shares are being offered abroad initially, this is little more than a smokescreen. The fact is that the Government and its advisers expect a "healthy aftermarket" in the shares to be supported from overseas. In other words the Tories fully expect the same sell-out to foreign concerns as epitomised the sale of British Telecom and British gas.

To be specific, the Government's expects both the United States and Canada to be aggressive buyers of BA stock over and above their initial allocations when official dealings begin.

VERY CHEAP

John Plaxton, of brokers Wood Grundy, organising the Canadian offering, was delighted by Conservative policy about selling to foreign investors, "The Canadian side is already over-subscribed" he said, "BA looks very cheap compared with other airline stock. Our job is easy".

Indeed, Thatcher's Government is certainly making it easy for foreign institutions to buy up British assets. Quite simply, privatisation means foreign ownership.

MOUTHFUL

RASTA VAN RULES TOXTETH

by Steve Brady

LIVERPOOL'S Toxteth Black ghetto is now a "no-go" area for the Police, and ruled by Rastafarians where there is *"one law for Whites and no law for non-whites"

This was revealed in a sworn statement by the City's former Lord Mayor, Sir Harry Livermore which was read to the Appeal Court.

Sir Harry, on oath, said he had been told this in an interview with a local police officer at the end of last year. The officer told the ex-Mayor, "Everyone in the police force knows that the Toxteth area, known as the Toxteth triangle, is a no-go area. Rastafarians continually tour the area in an armoured 'Rasta Van'. If there is any trouble", continued the local policeman, "the Rasta Van appears. The officer is told to clear off and he does so!".

Liverpool's former Lord Mayor said this information could have been given by several hundreds of other policemen. The city's main Black area was a safe haven for criminals on the run. As he put it, "the police officers know that the Toxteth area is rife with crime and criminals". Sir Harry quite rightly ended his sworn statement to the Court, "It seems to be a scandalous state of affairs that there is one law for the Whites and no law for the non-whites".

So Liverpool's former Mayor backs up what the National Front has been saying for years — the police are forced to discriminate in favour of Blacks, not against them. Senior officers refuse to let ordinary beat coppers go in and get known criminals if they are Black and can hide behind Black rioters.

The National Front demands an end to this state of affairs by returning all coloured immigrants at present residing in Britain to their country of ethnic origin.

TOWERING INFERNAL!

by Joe Pearce

POOR CONSTRUCTION and cuts in the repair programme threaten the health and safety of thousands of tenants in many of Birmingham's 400 high rise blocks of flats.

The city has the largest number of such blocks of any local authority in Europe and they are proving a disastrous investment. In fact, years of encouragement by successive Labour and Tory Governments to build skywards have produced a bitter legacy.

EXASPERATED

Groups of tenants are now so exasperated waiting for repairs to combat damp, condensation, and inadequate heating that they have taken the council to court.

In a case that could have dire consequence for the council, tenants in three tower blocks have forced the housing department to authorise repairs costing hundreds of thousands of pounds.

Following this initial success, tenants in other blocks are considering whether to take similar action against the council.

Meanwhile, Birmingham's tower blocks continue to crumble. Recently a slab of concrete weighing almost two tons fell from one block.

All this adds up to the fact that Birmingham's concrete jungle has become a concrete nightmare for the council. Lynne Jones, chairman of the housing committee, demonstrated the council's dilemma: *"In some cases we have to spend £750,000 to put right something that originally cost £100,000".

DEMOLISH

In fact in some cases the council finds it cheaper to demolish than repair. So far two blocks have been taken down and another three are earmarked for demolition.

The National Front would not merely demolish tower blocks 'in extreme cases". We would systematically pull down every one of these hideous concrete monstrosities and re-house those unfortunate enough to live in them in houses fit for human habitation.

BRITAIN'S OWN MRS SCROOGE

THE GAP between the lowest-paid workers and the rest of the workforce is wider now than it was 100 years ago, according to a study published over Christmas.

The Low Pay Unit warned in its report that many workers faced pay cuts over the Christmas period.

The report, entitled The Pay Race – Winners and Losers, states that in 1886 the average wage for men in full-time manual jobs was £1.21 a week. Those in the bottom fifth earned 69% of the average. In 1986, the bottom fifth earned only 65% of the average.

The unit said that Christmas brought wage cuts for workers under the Wages Act, which weakens minimum wage protection.

The first effects of this Act came into operation at the end of December when some catering workers suffered a Christmas pay cut of up to £12.00 a week. In the new year others faced cuts of up to £24.00 a week.

The unit said that it was the first time since the 1930's that people had faced cuts in weekly pay.

Chris Pond, the unit's director said; "The result of the Government's Dickensian economic policies will be a further widening of the divide between the poorest workers and the rest. ....in this respect at least Mrs Thatcher has achieved a return to Victorian values".

TYPECAST

It is fitting indeed that Mr Pond should refer to "Dickensian economic policies". After all, Margaret Thatcher is perfectly typecast as a mean miser from one of Dicken's novels. She is, in fact, a modern-day Mrs Scrooge.

FOREIGN IMPORTS FLOODING IN

BRITIAN'S trade deficit in clothing and textiles has widened to almost £2 billion for the first nine months of 1986 because of a surge in clothing imports from the Far East.

BACK IN East Ham High Street after a two year break, National Front paper sellers get their message across to the voters of Newham South. A constituency where the NF polled its best vote in the 1983 General Election.

MOVE OVER AND MAKE ROOM

8,254 VIETNAMESE refugees are waiting in Hong Kong for passage to Britain.

Last year Britain took 500 refugees but the Hong Kong legislature are hoping that Britain's quota this year will be a big increase on that number.

In total Britain has taken 12,757 boat people since May 1975.

SPENDING YOUR MONEY

CAMDEN Council is to make a £250,000 donation towards a £1,000,000 appeal to turn the Round House at Chalk Farm into a black arts centre.

Camden Council is one of the Labour Councils exposed recently that are spending an average of £7.00 a week per household more than other councils without producing any observable benefit.

THE 'FOUR MEN' WALK

IN 1902 the English writer Hilaire Belloc and three companions embarked on a walk across the beautiful county of Sussex. Their route took them from the Kent border in the east to the Hampshire border in the west. They took the quietest route possible, avoiding towns but making a bee-line for the various country inns along the way!

This year, 85 years on, a group of NF members plan to retrace the steps Belloc and his colleagues took. They plan to visit the same villages and the same pubs which the writer described in his book The Four Men.

They will cover about seventy-five miles and eighteen pubs (Belloc liked his beer) in just five days — Monday to Friday — in the course of which they will experience at first hand the beauties of Sussex.

FLAG SPORT

IGNORING THE FLOWER OF SCOTLAND

by Joe Pearce

THE BATTLE for the Championship of the Premier Division in Scotland is really hotting up. Yet as the 'auld enemies' of Rangers and Celtic fight it out for the top spot, viewers south of the border are deprived of ever seeing coverage of Scottish football.

Without doubt, the local Glasgow derby between Rangers and Celtic is one of the biggest events in British soccer. Yet coverage of this clash of the giants is never screened in England or Wales. This, in spite of the fact that thousands of Scots are resident in English cities.

CHARISMA

Besides catering for the Scots living south of the border, coverage of Scottish Premier Division matches would interest many English viewers captivated by the charisma of Rangers or Celtic.

Instead, sports viewers are force-fed a diet of American imports like American 'football', baseball or basketball. This is just one more example of the way in which Britain is becoming the fifty-first state of America.

Scotland is British. America is not. Let's put Scottish football before American 'football'.

QUESTION OF SPORT

THE SPORTS Council is to consider stop giving grants and aid to sports clubs which practice sexual discrimination.

RANGERS THE PRIDE OF GLASGOW!

by David Manners

GLASGOW RANGERS have always enjoyed the biggest support anywhere in Britain, and now with the arrival of Graeme Souness as manager and several English signings, football pundits outside Scotland are starting to acknowledge the Rangers phenomenon.

What will also, no doubt, be brought to light, is the Rangers tradition of playing an all Protestant team.

The Protestant policy is all too often branded as bigoted, but no publicity is given to the fact that both club and supporters alike confine their traditions to just an hour and a half each week. The upkeep of this tradition is part of the club's heart just as important as its strong code of discipline. It's a tradition that breeds pride and character making Rangers Britain's best supported football club with Ibrox sold out even when the team is playing badly.

■ A Rangers fan. Britain's most patriotic supporter

In days when many English clubs are riddled with West Indian players isn't it a breath of fresh air to see an all British side playing in front of supporters waving Union Jacks and singing the National Anthem.

Rangers are a credit to Great Britain and The FLAG looks forward to seeing the league title back at Ibrox again.

WEATHER BEATS OUR TIPSTER

RACING HAS been badly hit by the cold weather during January and none of The FLAG's selections had a chance to show their true colours.

FIFA'S AIM AN 'IRELAND UNITED'

IN ISSUE No.4 of The FLAG we carried an article on Joao Havelange, President of the International Football Federation FIFA.

His latest plan has now come to our attention: the separate football associations of England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland are to be amalgamated — Britain is only to have one World Cup team in 1990 to make way for more African countries.

UNITED IRELAND

His only alternative is even worse. It is to force England, Scotland and Wales to amalgamate, while Northern Ireland is to be pushed in with Southern Ireland.

Just where did this idea come from — certainly not from Britain, nor Europe, not even South America. It came from Guinea, whose contribution to football (as Brian Glanville of The Times put it) has been about as large as Stalin's contribution to the cause of World humanitarianism.

Havelange is a creeping bureaucrat, who owes his position to votes and pressure from the Third World and is fully in tune with their ideas of fairness and impartiality.

Havelange has been a total disaster as President of FIFA — his only aim seems to be to stay where he is and to line his own pocket, while he has refused to support a number of moves which would have improved the game, such as the penalty of explusion for the professional foul.

■ Havelange. Creeping bureaucrat.

WHERE TO GO

If the Black African countries and other Third World countries line up in an attempt to humiliate Britain then we should tell the lot of them where to go. We can be certain that most European countries would prefer to play England, Scotland, Wales or Northern Ireland rather than Guinea, Uganda or India. Perhaps we should also invite Havelange to explain his decision to the fans of Coleraine, Cardiff, Rangers, Chelsea, West Ham etc.etc.

HEDGEHOGS-SELL A DUMMY TO THE ANTI APARTHEID MOVEMENT

THE HEDGEHOGS, a rugby team from South Africa, side-stepped the Anti-Apartheid Movement and the Government by completing a tour of England under a cloak of secrecy during December.

After their opening game against Beckenham on 29th November, their cover was blown. Subsequently, their itinerary, which included games against Rosslyn Park, Richmond, Southend and Esher was scrapped. It was announced that they would treat the remainder of their stay as a holiday.

But instead of going to ground the Hedgehogs implemented a contingency plan which involved games against junior clubs from the south-east of England, the Midlands and the West Country.

Members of the 21-strong party had been staying in private houses and receiving only 12 hours notice of where games were to be played.

When the team had arrived, opposition to the tour was led by the Anti-Apartheid Movement, who were promised help by the Labour Party in their campaign to stop the Hedgehogs from playing. This degenerate assortment of multi-racialists and Left-wing thugs was joined in an unholy alliance by the Conservative Government who also opposed the tour.
